

Queensland's Covid-19 measures

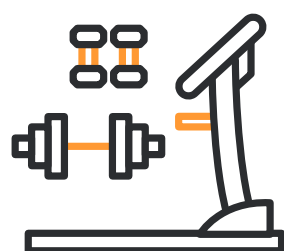

Unite & Recover

from 6pm 4 March 2022

No capacity or density limits for venues (regardless of vaccination status) including:

Places of worship and community halls

Gyms

Universities

Food courts and hospitality venues

Hairdressers and beauty services

Funerals

For more information visit www.qld.gov.au/health

Masks only required for:

Healthcare settings,
residential aged care,
disability accommodation
services and prisons

While waiting for and travelling on public transport, taxis and ride share

Airports and flights

Homes

No restrictions on visitors

Schools

No masks
No restrictions on visitors, assemblies,
camps or excursions

Queensland Government

Positive COVID-19 cases must isolate for 7 days from positive test. Close contacts must quarantine for 7 days, regardless of vaccination status.